

HASTENING THE TRANSITION TO IP NETWORKS

Implications for Consumers, Industry, and Regulators

National Press Club
Washington, D.C.
June 8, 2004

Agenda

- 8:30 Introductory Remarks by Allen Hepner, NMRC Advisory Board Member
- 8:35 Short Video Presentation – “The Neighborhood” by Pacific Telesis Group
- 9:00 Demonstrations of IP-Enabled Services
- Brooke Schulz, Vice President-Corporate Communications, Vonage Corp.
 - David Young, Director, Internet & Technology Policy, Verizon Corp.
- 9:30 How IP Applications “work” over the Network
- David Young, Director, Internet & Technology Policy, Verizon Corp.
 - David Reed, Executive Vice President, Cable Labs
- 10:00 Policy Discussion to Move IP Forward
- Jonathan Sallet, Telecom Consultant, Quintessence LLC
 - Rick Cimerman, Senior Director-State Telecommunications Policy, NCTA
 - Kathryn Brown, Senior Vice President, Verizon Corp.
- 10:45 Question and Answer Period
- 11:00 Wrap Up and Adjourn

ABOUT NMRC

The New Millennium Research Council (NMRC) is composed of a network of policy experts who develop workable, real-world solutions to the issues and challenges confronting policymakers. Its work has focused primarily in the fields of telecommunications and technology. For more information on the NMRC please visit: <http://www.newmillenniumresearch.org>.